

Nativity of Our Lady (Feast): Psalter Proper 8 Sep Wednesday

The earliest known account of Mary's birth is found in the Gospel of James, an apocryphal text from the late second century. This text describes Mary's father Joachim as a wealthy member of one of the Twelve Tribes of Israel. He and his wife Anne were deeply grieved by their childlessness.

First Reading: (Mic 5:2-4) Thus says the Lord: You, O Bethlehem Ephrathah, who are little to be among the clans of Judah, from you shall come forth for me one who is to be ruler in Israel, whose origin is from of old, from ancient days. Therefore he shall give them up until the time when she who is in travail has brought forth; then the rest of his brethren shall return to the people of Israel. And he shall stand and feed his flock in the strength of the Lord, in the majesty of the name of the Lord his God. And they shall dwell secure, for now he shall be great to the ends of the earth.

Ps 12:6-7

R./ I exult for Joy in the Lord

Gospel: (Mt 1:18-23) The birth of Jesus Christ took place in this way. When his mother Mary had been betrothed to Joseph, before they came together she was found to be with child of the Holy Spirit; and her husband Joseph, being a just man and unwilling to put her to shame, resolved to divorce her quietly. But as he considered this, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream, saying, "Joseph, son of David, do not fear to take Mary your wife, for that which is conceived in her is of the Holy Spirit; she will bear a son, and you shall call his name Jesus, for he will save his people from their sins." All this took place to fulfil what the Lord had spoken by the prophet: "Behold, a virgin shall conceive and bear a son, and his name shall be called Emmanuel" (which means, God with us).

REFLECTION

The genealogy of Christ shows that Jesus is the legal heir to the throne of David. The genealogy of Jesus Christ symbolizes God's glorious mercy. It is unusual to find the names of women in genealogies. They are listed in Jesus' lineage as a sign of God's mercy. There are no barriers to God's mercy. He will have mercy upon anyone no matter the sex, nationality or moral uprightness. Glance at the four women listed in the ancestry of Christ. How marvellous the mercy of God, their sins are forgiven, and they are accepted by God as His own. Godliness and righteousness are not inherited. Every human being stands as an individual before God and is responsible for his own life and behaviour. On this day, on the celebration of the nativity of the Mother of our Lord, let us reflect on the life which Mary had led, her commitment and total surrender to God's will.
